

1. All participants sit together in silence as Transfusers

2. Whomever was assigned number 1 is the first to transform into Doer. Once the crowd is settled, Doer #1 does the following:

Talk out loud incessantly¹ about what you are doing while you are doing the following:

- a. Stand up
- b. Find object
- c. Pick object up
- d. Move object
- e. Put object down
- f. Sit down and stop talking at this point

a-f = one cycle²

3. Once the Doer has completed one cycle the Transfusers write down, in list form, everything they just saw.

5. After the Transfusers write down everything they saw in list form, they cross out all words except for the following connective/conjunction words:

A

An

And

Does

Is

It

Then

With

¹ As Doer you are required to supply a texture of monotonous speech throughout the cycle/a-f, if you cannot further describe what you are doing while you are doing it then talk about something else.

² touched to held to moved to untouched

6. Immediately after the Transfusers have crossed out all words except for the specified connective/conjunction words, they read out loud all of the connective/conjunction words on their piece of paper.
7. After the Transfusers have read out loud all of the connective/conjunction words on their piece of paper, they sit in silence
8. Once all Transfusers have sat in a bit of awkward silence, Doer #2 is to begin their cycle.
9. Repeat 1 - 8 until all parts have acted as both doer and transfuser.
